

Trump Cuts Two Business Regs For Every New One Added

written by GEG | February 14, 2017

President Trump signed an executive order, that applies primarily to small business, which requires that for every new regulation that is created by any agency of the Executive Branch, two existing regulations must be cut. – GEG