Obamacare Replacement for Obamacare Failed To Pass. Rand Paul Says It would Have been Just As Bad.

Paul Ryan's bill to replace Obamacare failed last Friday, and the vote was cancelled. President Trump says that it will explode all on its own. Rand Paul says he wants to repeal Obamacare instead of replacing it. Premiums are too high because of the mandate and because people who already are sick are allowed to buy insurance at the same rates as healthy people, and that forces all rates through the roof. -GEG

Rand Paul: Ryan Plan Doesn't Fix Health Care

Problems, Would Be As Bad As Obamacare

SEN. RAND PAUL: The problem is, see, we as conservatives ran on repeal of Obamacare. I was elected in 2010, right after it came into place, to repeal it. We never ran on a replacement of Obamacare Lite. We never ran on making the entitlement subsidies permanent. We never ran on an individual mandate or keeping the taxes or keeping the Medicaid expansion. We didn't run on that, and so they're really flat-out false in telling us, oh, you guys ran on this plan. None of us ran on this plan. We ran on repealing Obamacare because it doesn't work.

They're going to repeal part of it and leave in place all of the stuff that causes your insurance rates to go through the roof. So we have a plan, a replacement plan that we'd like to talk about at the same time, that instead of subsidizing people's health care, actually forces prices down, forces the insurance companies to come to the table.

Under my plan, 37 million people who belong to AARP would be able to negotiate and buy a group policy of insurance. And that would drive prices down, particularly for people leading right up to retirement but on into the retirement years. It's the only thing that would work to bring prices down. And we're not talking about at all. That's a huge mistake by the Republican Party.

Now we're in a bidding war with Democrats over, well, we're going to offer half as much federal subsidies as the Democrats. We're never going to win that bidding war. It's a huge mistake. It's a public relations nightmare. They should scrap it all. Start over. And let's have a real meaningful debate about how to fix it.

The timing of Alex Jones' apology last Friday was as significant as the apology itself. An organized protest calling for an investigation of Pizzagate was scheduled the next day at the White House. Jones' reversal at that critical moment undoubtedly diminished the size and force of the protest.

It is unknown whether Alex Jones was threatened, either financially or physically, other researchers say they have been.

As a side note, David Brock, the former 'domestic partner' of James Alefantis, and the Democratic party operative behind Correct The Record and Media Matters, had a heart attack two days before Jones' apology.
