

'Hate Crime' Blamed On White Trump Supporter Is Exposed As A Lie. Surveillance Camera Shows Crime Committed By Black Man.

Charlotte, North Carolina: An Indian immigrant from Bhutan who owns a small market was threatened in a letter left behind after a fire was set at his store. The note mentioned Trump, warned the immigrant to go back where he came from, and was signed "White America". Surveillance video shows that the "white racist" Trump-supporter was a black man. -GEG

Fake white hate-crime: Surveillance camera catches black man in 'white racist' arson of family market

On April 7, 2017, someone set fire to Central Market on Albemarle in Charlotte, North Carolina, and left a note, signed "White America," threatening the store owner, a refugee originally from Bhutan.

But surveillance video shows that the "white racist" Trump-supporter turns out to be a black man.

Alex Shabad reports for WCNC.com, April 7, 2017, that the letter references President Trump, then goes on to threaten the store owner, Kamal Dhimal, with torture if he doesn't "go back where he came from”:

“Business owner

Our newly elected president Donald Trump is our nation builder for white America. You all know that, we want our country back on the right track. We need to get rid of Muslims, Indians and all immigrants. Specially (sic), we don't want business run by refugees and immigrant any more (sic).

We are ready to wake up some of our great state including North Carolina and we will take care of the country. Immigrants and refugee are taking our job, doing our business and leaving us standard (sic). So, you are not allowed to do business any more (sic).

We know you are one and many of other immigrant doing business here. This is our warning. Leave the business and go back where you came from.

If you don't follow this warning then we are not responsible for the torture starting now.

God Bless America... ..White America”

List Of 206 Organizations Funded By George Soros That Are Operating In The US

These organizations are directly funded by George Soros and his Open Society Foundations. Many of them have mission statements that sound high minded and worthy of support, but all of them are committed to goals and projects that are based on the leftist model of collectivism. Their primary appeal is to focus on problems in our society with little disclosure of the kind of society they hope to create. –GEG

A. Organizations directly funded by Soros and his Open Society Foundations (OSF):

1. Advancement Project: This organization works to organize “communities of color” into politically cohesive units while disseminating its leftist worldviews and values as broadly as possible by way of a sophisticated communications department.
2. Air America Radio: Now defunct, this was a self-identified “liberal” radio network.
3. Al-Haq: This NGO produces highly politicized reports, papers, books, and legal analyses regarding alleged Israeli human-rights abuses committed against Palestinians.
4. All of Us or None: This organization seeks to change voting laws – which vary from state to state – so as to allow ex-inmates, parolees, and even current inmates to cast their ballots in political elections.
5. Alliance for Justice: Best known for its activism vis a vis the appointment of federal judges, this group consistently depicts Republican judicial nominees as “extremists.”
6. America Coming Together: Soros played a major role in creating this group, whose purpose was to coordinate and organize pro-Democrat voter-mobilization programs.

7. America Votes: Soros also played a major role in creating this group, whose get-out-the-vote campaigns targeted likely Democratic voters.
8. America's Voice: This open-borders group seeks to promote "comprehensive" immigration reform that includes a robust agenda in favor of amnesty for illegal aliens.
9. American Bar Association Commission on Immigration Policy: This organization "opposes laws that require employers and persons providing education, health care, or other social services to verify citizenship or immigration status."
10. American Bridge 21st Century: This Super PAC conducts opposition research designed to help Democratic political candidates defeat their Republican foes.

Egypt: Massive Power Grab By President El-Sisi In Wake Of ISIS Terror Attack On Coptic Christians

Coptic Christian churches across Egypt are canceling their

Easter celebrations as they mourn the death of 47 people who were killed in two churches by ISIS bombs. Egyptian President Abdel el-Sisi is using the tragedy as an excuse for a vast increase in government power. He declared a 3-month state of emergency during which the government will control public gatherings, monitor all civilian communications, monitor and approve all print publications, TV news, all TV shows, and confiscate weapons. [In other words, ISIS once again serves the ambitions of the leaders of the governments they attack. Does anyone seriously expect these leaders to actually eliminate terrorism?] –GEG
