

Your Brain Is Targeted by Scientists and Governments for Remote Reading and Remote Control

written by GEG | June 14, 2017

Researcher, Melissa Dykes, reveals that globalists are close to merging humans with machines and computers and that, eventually, this will cause the end of genuine humanity. We have heard about this before, but this analysis is remarkably comprehensive – and chilling. She thinks time is running out to stop it. What do you think? -GEG
