

California Ranchers Revolt as the Feds Set Aside 2-Million Acres for a Frog

written by GEG | August 3, 2017

California farmers and ranchers, who expect to be regulated out of business by timber and grazing restrictions, are suing the US Fish and Wildlife Service.

Hackers at Cybersecurity Conference Changed Output of 30 Voting Machines within 2 Hours

written by GEG | August 3, 2017

Even paper ballots are at risk if they are counted by machines. The only reliable method of preventing vote-machine fraud is to use paper ballots counted by hand in public with many observers.

Trump Advocates Cutting Immigration in Half, Favors Skilled English-Speakers

written by GEG | August 3, 2017

New immigrants would be prevented from collecting welfare, which is in bold contrast to the 50% of all present immigrant households who currently receive welfare.

The US Has Declared All-Out Trade War on Russia

written by GEG | August 3, 2017

The bill was passed almost unanimously, 98-2 in the Senate and 419-3 in the House, as both Republicans and Democrats continue to push the US toward total war with Russia.