

Comey's Draft Statement Exonerated Hillary Before Getting Testimony from Witnesses Or from Hillary Herself

Last year, when James Comey was Director of the FBI, he wrote drafts of a statement exonerating Hillary Clinton in April or May of last year, before the FBI interviewed 17 key witnesses, including Clinton and her top aides. Tom Fitton of Judicial Watch says that Comey protected Hillary while using FBI resources to target Trump at the same time. -GEG