

US Deep State Foreign Policy of Assassination and DisInfo Implicates Hillary, Obama, Mueller and More!

The CIA and the deep state are pushing the Russia-Trump collusion accusations to prevent the public from discovering that the deep state (covert agencies) have had a policy over the past 70 years of engaging in assassination and disinformation to overthrow foreign governments. Investigative reporter Lee Stranahan explains that the coup over Ukraine is provable and how to make it break into the mainstream to expose the deep state. [The summary under Stranahan's video contains links documenting his statements, which are not found at his web site.]

Summary by JW Williams

Investigative reporter, Lee Stranahan, makes a case that Hillary Clinton, the DNC, Barack Obama, the CIA, the deep state, Robert Mueller, and George Soros are complicit in a coup de'tat to oust the governments of Ukraine and Syria. He advocates calling for Congressional investigations in order to obtain subpoenas that would show how the CIA has had a foreign policy for the last 70 years to overthrow governments by way of assassination and disinformation.

He describes how Hillary had a joint fundraising agreement with the DNC in 2015(1) that allowed her to hand-pick the communications director, and she chose Luis Miranda.

Alexandra Chalupa, a Ukrainian national who worked in Bill Clinton's White House, acted as a DNC operative and gathered opposition research against Trump during the presidential campaign. She reported directly to Luis Miranda at the DNC, and admitted to using the offices of The Open Leadership Center, which is a branch of Congress that is not supposed to be used for political activity. But Chalupa used it for doing opposition research, which was totally political, and therefore, illegal.(2)

Chalupa was acting as an agent of the Ukrainian government under President Petro Poroshenko. The Ukrainians at the Ukrainian Embassy were ordered to work with the DNC, which was controlled by the Hillary campaign. It is a crime to use opposition research from foreign agents and it is a crime to pay foreign agents for opposition research.(3)

Mainstream media outlets and internet tech companies like Google and Facebook, who are working with the deep state, also are complicit and are covering up these facts.

This story could cause Mueller to be indicted because he knows that the charges against Paul Manafort are bogus. This can be proven because in August 2016, a Ukrainian prosecutor came out and said that Manafort's name was found in secret ledgers with cash payments, but the accusations were later retracted.(4) The government of Ukraine itself is now investigating this matter. Mueller is using the power of the government to file false charges against Manafort.

The accusations against Trump colluding with Russia are being used to deflect attention and cover up the coup that was carried out in Ukraine in 2014, led by the CIA, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, and former President Obama. The scheme was funded by George Soros.(5) Similar tactics have been used in Syria, in order to oust President Assad.

The CIA wants to prevent Americans from finding out that the deep state has had a policy over the past 70 years of engaging in assassination and disinformation.

Stranahan is requesting the public to call into Breitbart's radio show at 866-95-PATRIOT to ask them to publish this story.

Conservative Latino High School Student Crushes Liberal Teacher with Facts

New York: Leftist teacher harangues a conservative Latino because he challenges minority-victimhood rhetoric. Teacher says FBI statistics on crime cannot be trusted because FBI is “seeded” in white supremacy. [Listen to this and see if this sounds like a teacher or an agitator.] -GEG

A high school student from the Hudson Valley area in New York, who wishes to remain anonymous said he was challenged by his liberal creative writing teacher for being a Latino Trump supporter, and he captured most of the back-and-forth on video.

Within the heated political exchange, the liberal teacher perpetuated the notion of rampant anti-black racist police shootings in America, claimed she was “smarter” than the dictionary, suggested FBI statistics were bunk because the organization is “seeded” in white supremacy, and accused the Latino student of being a brainwashed “radical.”

Although the 12th grader cited statistics and facts, the teacher maintained her victimhood narrative and carried on the debate for what the student said was well over the ten minutes

Here's the student's take, posted via a pseudonym online:

She was talking loudly about Trump and I am one of the few right-wingers in my school. So she asked me why I supported him seeing as how I am Latino, and he hates us. I responded saying that he doesn't hate Latinos, he just wants to remove Illegals from the US. It then shifted to how there are a war on blacks and other minorities because of cop killings, and stated that the FBI statistics I was using were skewered because it was seeded on white supremacy.

It finally shifted to where she said how when its a Muslim attack, its labelled terrorism, but Vegas was not since he was white. I told her that so far, unless something turns up, we have not found any political or religious aims, and therefore it cannot be viewed as a terrorist incident because the definition of terrorism states violence in the pursuit of political aim ((anti-fa)). At that point, she claimed multiple times the dictionary was wrong and that she knew more than it.

Rand Paul Attacked by His Liberal Neighbor and Sustained 5 Broken Ribs

Bowling Green, Kentucky: Senator Rand Paul was attacked at his home in a gated community, while mowing the lawn, and sustained five rib fractures. He also suffers from bruises on his lungs. His neighbor, Rene Boucher, 59, was arrested and charged with fourth-degree assault, and then released on $7,500 bail. While it is unknown whether the attack was political, the two men had been known to have “heated discussions” about health care. Paul’s injuries may force him into an extended absence from the Senate, which could affect key issues in American politics. -GEG

The socialist man who assaulted Kentucky Sen. Rand Paul on Friday – leaving Paul with five broken ribs – released a statement through his lawyer insisting the assault had “nothing to do” with politics.

Rene Boucher, a 59-year-old retired anesthesiologist, who lives next door to Paul, faces charges of fourth-degree assault for tackling the senator as he mowed his lawn. Paul suffered lung contusions as a result of the broken ribs, his office said. Boucher was ordered to remain 1,000 feet away from Paul and his family, except while in his house, as a condition for bail, according to a copy of the citation reviewed by The Daily Caller.

Paul’s neighbors said the assault was the result of a landscaping dispute, the New York Times reported. “They just couldn’t get along. I think it had very little to do with Democrat or Republican politics,” neighbor Jim Skaggs told the NYT. “I think it was a neighbor-to-neighbor thing. They just both had strong opinions, and a little different ones about what property rights mean.”
