

Why Doesn't Trump Close Down Soros? Are You Ready for The Answer?

George Soros invested $160 million in Donald Trump's Chicago skyscraper in 2004. In 2009, he spent Christmas Eve at a private party with Soros. In 2011, when Trump was challenged by Tea Party activists on his close relationship to Soros, he responded: "Forget Soros. Leave him alone. Let's talk about somebody else." As President, Trump has filled his cabinet with Soros' friends and financial partners. [Could this be the answer?] -GEG
