

Transgenders Allowed to Join Military Eligible for Free Sex-Change Surgery

written by GEG | January 1, 2018

Allowing transgenders to join the military is contrary to a directive from the Commander-in-Chief President Trump. The Trump administration appealed Judge Kollar-Kitelly's decision but was rejected. Few transgenders can afford the $100,000 sex-change surgery. Making it free in the military is an incentive for transgenders to enlist. Because of this, the military eventually may have the highest proportion of transgenders of any 'professional' group in the country. [It is unknown what effect this will have on the fighting spirit of the US military.]

Bakers Who Refused to Make Gay Cake Found Guilty of Discrimination

written by GEG | January 1, 2018

The bakers had to pay a $135K fine for 'emotional damage' and lost their business. The Christian couple's attorneys argued in favor of the First Amendment in refusing to make the cake, while the lesbian couple argued that all people should be treated equally under the law. [What part of the Constitution or logic says that a free people should be forced against their will to perform services for anyone who demands it? Forget 'religious reasons' and forget 'freedom of speech'. If you do not like my face, or body odor, or life style, or vulgar language or anything else, why should you be compelled by law to associate with me and serve my demands? This is not the proper function of the state. See The Creed of Freedom.]

The Red Elephants posted it on their new Facebook page, 'Film Your Marxist Professors', which alerts the public to communist propaganda that now is being taught to American youth.

Professor George Ciccariello-Maher of Drexel University is resigning after continued public pressure over his offensive Tweets critical of whites and the military. Now he is calling on tenured professors to 'defend' against white supremacists, and to help expand Antifa on campus. [The most significant part of this story is that racist Ciccariello-Maher was not dismissed by Drexel.]
