

Twitter Is Willing to Give Trump's Private Messages to DOJ Without a Warrant

James O'Keefe of Project Veritas reveals that Twitter is ready to hand over President Trump's private messages to the Justice Department. O'Keefe obtained undercover video of Twitter engineer, Clay Haynes, saying "We're more than happy to help the DOJ with their little investigation." Haynes says he is a "bleeding-heart liberal", hates Trump, and that this attitude 'comes with the territory". He describes in chilling detail just how much information Twitter gathers on literally everyone – including deleted messages. He says that what they do is 'very Big-Brotherish." -GEG

Early Wednesday morning, James O'Keefe revealed Twitter is willing to hand over President Trump's private messages to the Justice Department without a search warrant.

A Twitter spokesman responded to O'Keefe's video later Wednesday afternoon in a statement to International Business Times.

The undercover Project Veritas video shows Twitter engineer Clay Haynes Saying "We're more than happy to help the DOJ with their little investigation"

James O'Keefe even put a disguise on and had dinner at Morton's steakhouse with the Twitter employee, Clay Haynes.

The statement from Twitter spox is as follows:

"The individual depicted in this video was speaking in a personal capacity and does not represent or speak for Twitter. Twitter only responds to valid legal requests, and does not share any user information with law enforcement without such a request."

"We deplore the deceptive and underhanded tactics by which this footage was obtained and selectively edited to fit a pre-determined narrative. Twitter is committed to enforcing our rules without bias and empowering every voice on our platform, in accordance with the Twitter Rules."

James O'Keefe responded by blasting Twitter, "UPDATE: Notice how the official Twitter statement does not address the subpoena/investigation at all. @jack, your users ought to know- would you give private information to DOJ w/out letting them know?"

UPDATE: Notice how the official Twitter statement does not address the subpoena/investigation at all. @jack, your users ought to know- would you give private information to DOJ w/out letting them know?

STATEMENT: <https://t.co/r3AbE6odEc>

– James O'Keefe (@JamesOKeefeIII) January 10, 2018

O'Keefe went after Jack Dorsey again, "What's interesting about @jack statement is that he Doesn't deny his what his Senior Networking engineer said into our hidden cameras. in fact, he seems to confirm he said what he said."

What's interesting about @jack statement is that he Doesn't deny his what his Senior Networking engineer said into our hidden cameras. in fact, he seems to confirm he said what he said. pic.twitter.com/xf1ZerG0qN

– James O’Keefe (@JamesOKeefeIII) January 10, 2018

Read full article here...

California Judge Blocks Effort to End DACA

After Trump’s televised meeting on the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program, a federal judge in California blocked the Trump administration from rescinding it in March. The judge ruled that deportation protections must remain in place until legal challenges work their way through the court system. [There is a lot of uncertainty in the wake of Trumps reversal of position, but one thing is clear; Immigration reform is now an empty phrase.] -GEG

Leaked Memo: Dreamers Are “Critical” to “Future Electoral Success” of Democrats

The Center for American Progress Action Fund, founded by Clinton operative, John Podesta, sent out a memo from the president of the organization, Jennifer Palmieri, stating that DACA is key to getting votes for Democrats. The memo reads, “If Democrats don’t try to do everything in their power to defend Dreamers, that will jeopardize Democrats’ electoral chances in 2018 and beyond.” [President Trump knows this better than most and, by supporting DACA, has knowingly handed the Democrats a powerful advantage in future elections.] -GEG

The Center For American Progress (CAP) Action Fund circulated a memo on Monday calling illegal immigrants brought here at a young age – so-called “Dreamers” – a “critical component of the Democratic Party’s future electoral success.”

The memo, co-authored by former Clinton communications director Jennifer Palmieri, was sent around to allies calling on Democrats to “refuse to offer any votes for Republican spending bills that do not offer a fix for Dreamers and instead appropriate funds to deport them.”

President Donald Trump’s administration moved to end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) policy in September, which former President Barack Obama instituted through executive order to keep immigrants who came here as children from being deported.

Trump called on Congress to find a legislative fix for young immigrants, or “Dreamers,” facing deportation. House lawmakers recently put forward a bipartisan DACA compromise bill that also claims to address worries over chain migration. However, it’s unclear if the bill will pass.

CAP Action’s memo says protecting DACA is not only a “moral imperative” for Democrats, it also key to getting votes.

“The fight to protect Dreamers is not only a moral imperative, it is also a critical component of the Democratic Party’s future electoral success,” reads Palmieri’s memo, obtained by The Daily Caller News Foundation.

“If Democrats don’t try to do everything in their power to defend Dreamers, that will jeopardize Democrats’ electoral chances in 2018 and beyond,” reads the memo. “In short, the next few weeks will tell us a lot about the Democratic Party and its long-term electoral prospects.”

Read full article here...

Trump Breaks Campaign Promise on Immigration, Promises to Pass Any DACA Bill Drafted by Those Who Opposed His Campaign

Tucker Carlson criticizes President Trump for failing to use his negotiation skills in a meeting at the White House with establishment lawmakers over the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program. DACA allows 700,000 people to stay in the US who were brought in illegally when they were children. Trump now says he will accept any bill that Congress presents to him, which is a total abandonment of his promises to end DACA, stop chain migration, and build the wall. [Those who voted for him because of these promises have been betrayed again.] -GEG