

University of Texas Antifa Group Advocates Throwing Bricks at Police Officers' Heads

University of Texas at Austin's Revolutionary Student Front group will resume weekly "self-defense classes" that are really designed to promote violence. Last October, they sent out a tweet saying, "Bricks belong best thrown at pig heads!"

A student Antifa group taught University of Texas at Austin students "self-defense" Saturday.

University of Texas at Austin's Revolutionary Student Front group tweeted it would resume "weekly self-defense classes." It posted a photo of communist soldiers along with its advertisement.

"Our first class is going to be hosted at UT on Saturday at 1:00 PM on the green space by the turtle pond," the group said. "Dress in comfortable workout clothes (high for the day is 54°) and bring some water!"

However, it appears the student group promotes actions surpassing mere self-defense.

"Bricks belong best thrown at pig heads!" the Revolutionary Student Front said in October.

The organization also believes “white supremacy is at the heart of American values.”

Read full article here..

Whistleblower Cop Exposes Migrant Rape Crimes in Sweden

Sweden: Police officer, Peter Springare, was reported to his superiors and is likely to be investigated for saying the country’s gang-rape problem is linked to migration and is a “cultural phenomenon”. Last year, Springare blew the whistle on migrant crime when he said that almost all serious crimes are committed by migrants. For this, he has been labeled a racist. Incidentally, ethnicity is hidden in the crime statistics. -GEG

Swedish police officer Peter Springare has been reported to police and will likely be investigated after he said the country’s gang rape problem is linked to migration and was a “cultural phenomenon”.

Springare, who gained global attention after blowing the whistle on the extent of migrant crime in Sweden last year commented on the issue of gang rapes earlier this month claiming such attacks were “new” and were a consequence of the last 10 to 15 years of immigration policy, Swedish newspaper Aftonbladet reports.

“There are also ethnic Swedes engaged in group violence, but not in the same numbers as foreign-born offenders,” Springare said. The comments, which were recorded by broadcaster TV4, have since been reported to Bergslagen police who have announced that an internal investigation will likely take place.

The communications manager for the police in Bergslagen confirmed that the report would be passed on to internal investigators and said that Springare’s comments could potentially harm public trust in the police.

Others were far more critical of the remarks with Secretary General of Sweden’s Law Society Anne Ramberg commenting: “It is remarkable. All civil servants and most policymakers must have better judgement and adhere to our form of government and the value base it expresses. These statements are almost racist.”

Read full article here...

Former CIA Director Admits US Meddles in Foreign Elections

“In the Interests of Democracy”

Former CIA Director James Woolsey admitted that the US meddles in the elections of other people and then said, “Well, hmmm... only for a very good cause...in the interests of democracy.” It is ironic that he claims to be protecting democracy, yet CIA interference in elections is the opposite of democracy.

Start video at 4:30:

Former CIA chief James Woolsey appeared on Fox News to push the narrative of how dastardly ‘dem Russkies’ are in their meddling with the sacred soul of America’s democracy.

Woolsey did his patriotic deep-state-duty and proclaimed the evils of “expansionist Russia” and dropped ‘facts’ like “Russia has a larger cyber-army than its standing army,” before he moved on to China and its existential threats.

Ingraham asks Woolsey,

“Have we ever tried to meddle in other countries’ elections?”

Hes responds, surprisingly frankly...

“Oh probably... but it was for the good of the system...”

To which Ingraham follows up...

“We don’t do that now though? We don’t mess around in other people’s elections?”

Prompting this extraordinary sentence from a former CIA chief...

“Well...hmmmm, numm numm numm numm... only for a very good cause...in the interests of democracy”

So just to clarify – yes, the CIA chief admitted that Democracy-spreading ‘Murica meddled in the Democratic elections of other nations “in the interests of democracy.”

In case you wondered which ones he was referring to, here’s a brief selection since 1948...

2016: UK (verbal intervention against Brexit)
2014: Afghanistan (effectively re-writing Afghan constitution)
2014: UK (verbal intervention against Scottish independence)
2011: Libya (providing support to overthrow Colonel Gaddafi)
2009: Honduras (ousting President Zelaya)
2006: Palestine (providing support to oust Prime Minister Haniyeh)
2005: Syria (providing support against President al-Assad)
2003: Iran (providing support against President Khatami)-
2003: Iraq (ousting of President Hussein)
2002: Venezuela (providing support to attempt an overthrow of President Chavez)
1999: Yugoslavia (removing Yugoslav forces from Kosovo)
1994: Iraq (attempted overthrow of President Hussein)
1991: Haiti (ousting President Aristide)
1991: Kuwait (removing Iraqi forces from Kuwait)
1989: Panama (ousting General Noriega)
1983: Grenada (ousting General Austin’s Marxist forces)
1982: Nicaragua (providing support
1971: Chile (ousting President Allende)
1967: Indonesia (ousting President Sukarno)
1964: Brazil (ousting President Goulart)
1964: Chile (providing support against Salvador Allende)
1961: Congo (assassination of leader Lumumba)
1958: Lebanon (providing support to Christian political parties)
1954: Guatemala (ousting President Arbenz)
1953: Iran (ousting Prime Minister Mossadegh)
1953: Philippines (providing support to the President Magsaysay campaign)

1948: Italy (providing support to the Christian Democrats campaign)

Read full article here...

Special Counsel Robert Mueller Indicted 13 Russian Citizens for Trolling Against Hillary on Facebook

Special Counsel Robert Mueller indicted 13 Russian citizens and three Russian entities on charges of interfering in US elections through “sowing discord” on Facebook, and organizing events that criticized Hillary Clinton- the charges amount to Russians acting as ‘Facebook trolls’. Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein admitted that no Americans were involved, and there is no charge that the activity altered the outcome of the election. Mueller has yet to present any evidence of collusion.

Florida High School Students Take on Role of Gun Control Activists

Students from the Florida High School where the recent shooting took place are calling for gun control, even though Nikolas Cruz passed a background check and obtained his AR-15 gun legally. The gun control lobby is now recruiting young students, especially those who are approaching the age of 18 [and eligible to vote] for their newest campaign, 'March for Our Lives', which will include a march on Washington and student protests across the country on March 24th. The group is affiliated with 'Everytown for Gun Safety' that is funded by former NY Mayor Michael Bloomberg.

They are angry. They are channeling their pain and stepping into the harsh spotlight of a heated and ongoing national debate. They are shielding their peers who feel too devastated to do the same.

They are the survivors of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Shooting that left 17 dead and more than a dozen others injured – and the founders of a movement they're calling: "Never Again."

"We are going to be the kids that you read about in textbooks – not because we are going to be another statistic about mass shootings in America, but because we are going to be last mass shooting,” 18-year-old senior Emma Gonzalez said during a gun control rally in Fort Lauderdale on Saturday. She said she wrote her speech on the back of her notes from her Advanced Placement government class.

Hundreds of people stood in the covered courtyard of the federal courthouse in Fort Lauderdale demanding specific policy changes following the nation’s deadliest high school shooting: A ban on assault weapons. Stricter background checks and an age requirement for gun purchases. Laws that keep guns away from mentally ill people who want to use them to kill.

The message local teenagers sent to the adults in charge was raw and cutting. They held signs that said: “My friends died for what?” and “Money killed my friends.” At one point they stood in a group and chanted: “You are responsible.”

On Sunday morning, the student leaders made an announcement to a captive nation: They will lead a “March for Our Lives” in Washington, D.C., on March 24, and they invited communities across the country to hold simultaneous protests calling for an end to mass school shootings.

Read full article here..