

Company Owned by Trump's Son-In-Law Faces Federal Grand Jury Subpoena

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

New York: Federal prosecutors approved subpoenas to Kushner Companies based on a report by AP that found the real estate company repeatedly filed forms with the New York City Department of Buildings claiming they owned no rent-controlled apartment units while actually possessing hundreds of such units. The false filings allowed Kushner Companies to raise rents and, in turn, sell those buildings at a great profit two years later.

Pay Dirt: Obama's DOJ Had No Evidence to Justify Opening Russia Investigation

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

Congress finally received the 'electronic communication', which is the original reason why counterintelligence spied on the Trump campaign alleging they colluded with Russia, but no official intelligence was used to open the investigation, which indicates the investigation was illegal. Congress is investigating the US State Department because its info was leaked to the FBI. Four of Comey's memos were classified and he laundered them through a friend who leaked them to the New York Times in order to open a special counsel investigation- also illegal.

WikiLeaks Says It Will Have "Amazing Fun" in Countering DNC Lawsuit

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

The DNC filed a lawsuit alleging the Trump campaign, the Russian government, and WikiLeaks conspired to interfere in the 2016 presidential campaign to tip the election in favor of Donald Trump. The purpose of the lawsuit is to motivate donors and voters on the far left. WikiLeaks has vowed to counter-sue and is delighted at the prospect of opening discovery on the DNC while Trump expressed interest in getting hold of the DNC servers that the FBI was never allowed to inspect.

Washington State Fusion Center Accidentally Sends Journalist Documents on Mind Control

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

The Washington State Fusion Center accidentally sent documents containing information about psycho-electronic weapons and mind control to a journalist who had made an unrelated FOIA request. World governments are actively developing new classes of weaponry that the public have been led to believe are the stuff of fantasy, thus making it easy to pass off anyone discussing "psycho-electronic" as a wild conspiracy theorist.

Europe's Largest Bank to Stop Funding Coal Plants and Arctic Drilling

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

Europe's largest bank, HSBC, announced it would no longer finance coal power plants, oil sands projects in Canada and offshore drilling in the Arctic, in order to comply with the Paris Treaty. Other banks that have also refused to invest in coal and oil companies include ING, BNP Paribas and BBVA, due to pressure from environmentalists, who are backed by globalists interested in limiting access to energy.

Leftist Anti-Gun Professor Charged with Spraying Fake Blood on Home of NRA Lobbyist

written by GEG | April 23, 2018

Gailey said she did not invite any other activists because she to make sure the protest was calm and legal.

Virginia: Anti-gun leftists ramp up the pressure, weaponizing intimidation and shame, by confronting their targets at their homes. Chris Cox, a lobbyist for the NRA, said that the extremists sprayed fake blood on his home, protest his home with a poster of a dead child, created a website mimicking his wife's business, and distributed flyers outside of his wife's interior design business. The leftist academia is behind much of the heightened protests and criminal activity, including University of Nebraska-Lincoln professor Patricia Hill, who was arrested for allegedly spraying the fake blood on the Cox's home on two occasions.
