

The Democrat Party Is Funded through Government Agencies

Ron Bassilian, a candidate running for Congress in California, discovered the US Center for Disease Control was diverting taxpayer dollars, $3 million in one check, to a local liberal group to fund far-left campaigns. He says the government money is funneled into the Democratic Party. -GEG Ron Bassilian is running for California's 37th Congressional district as a Republican in 2018.

Bassilian has been employed in the IT world mostly working on Exchange, Microsoft's enterprise e-mail solution.

Recently, Ron Bassilian discovered the US Center for Disease Control was diverting taxpayer dollars, at least $3 million, to a local liberal group to far left campaigns.

Ron Bassilian reported this earlier this week:

A friend of mine had a similar college life to me, he went on to do political advocacy and I went on to the private sector. So imagine my pleasant surprise when we find each other on Facebook a couple years ago, and I found out he gets a large check to start his Community Coalition center in South Central Los Angeles. My memory recalls it at $750,000.

That must be nice, I thought, getting paid to be advocate for poor people. So I kept tabs on this group, Community

Coalition. And the longer I kept tabs on it, the less I liked what I saw.

I've talked about how March for our Lives was a thinly veiled Democrat campaign – follow the money to the DNC, and follow the words to see they really want to smear the NRA and GOP. Well, here they are funding kids to go speak there.

Check out their other campaigns. Black Lives Matter, huge settlements for schools, you name it.

Now, why do I say this? Well, I was trying to look up the donation my friend was bragging about. Turns out either I was wrong or that wasn't all. This organization got a $3 million check from the CDC – a government organization – for “tackling health issues.” And there handing the check is Karen Bass.

Can someone please explain to me what any of these issues have to do with tackling health?...

...Let's call this CDC grant for what it is. It's the heyday of Obama era politics – funneling government money into organizations that just go organize and advocate for the Democratic Party.

The Democratic Party isn't winning in California because their ideas are better, or they're more compassionate than conservatives. It's because they monopolized the racket.

Trump Threatens to Revoke Press Credentials because 90% of News about Him is Negative

President Trump suggested that he might revoke White House credentials for some journalists following the publication of a survey that showed over 90% of mainstream media news coverage of him is negative and tilts strongly to the left. The most negative topics include several scandals ranging from alleged Russian collusion to Stormy Daniels, immigration, gun rights, and peace in Syria. Matt Drudge, the influential Internet news publisher, warned that Trump's crusade against 'fake news' could lead to government licensing all reporters.

Trump says he might 'take away credentials' from TV reporters because '91% of the network news about me is negative (Fake)' in latest attack on free press

- President vented on Twitter about reports from the conservative Media Research Center
- Research last fall found 91 per cent of big-three TV networks' evening news coverage about Trump that wasn't neutral was negative in nature
- That number sat at 90 per cent for the quarter ending last month
- Influential online news aggregation pioneer Matt Drudge said licensing of all reporters' could be on the horizon – something Democrats have floated before

- Trump hinted that he could yank some TV networks' White House credentials
- White House Correspondents Association blasted him for what it said would be 'an unconscionable assault on the First Amendment'

President Donald Trump suggested Wednesday that he might revoke White House credentials for some journalists, following the publication of a survey that showed a dramatic leftward tilt in television news coverage about him.

The Media Research Center, a conservative watchdog group, tracked the evening newscasts on ABC, CBS and NBC for the first four months of this year and found more than 1,600 'explicitly positive and negative' statements about the president.

The group determined that nine out of 10 of those broadcast statements were negative. It did not include CNN and MSNBC in its research.

Trump vented, saying: 'The Fake News is working overtime. Just reported that, despite the tremendous success we are having with the economy & all things else, 91% of the Network News about me is negative (Fake). Why do we work so hard in working with the media when it is corrupt? Take away credentials?'

The president, though, ignored a journalist's question hours later when he was asked before a Cabinet meeting whether or not he would 'ban press from the White House.'

NJ Property Developer Warns Tenants to Get Rid of All Guns and Rifles

New Jersey: RPM Development Group issued a notice to its renters advising them that “No one will be permitted to store, or carry a gun or rifle, or any other type of firearm of any kind in the building, or on the grounds.” If a firearm is discovered, they say they will send a Notice to Cease, followed by a Notice to Vacate. [Before you say that the owner can set whatever rules he wishes on his own property, would you approve if the owner ordered you to speak only a certain language or to refrain from reading certain religious books while on his property? Can the rights of the property owner override the tenant’s Second-Amendment rights?

The surprising answer is yes. That’s because the Second Amendment right to bear arms is found in the Bill of Rights in the US Constitution, which is a documents that limits the power of the federal government but says nothing about limiting the power of anything else. In other words, “Congress shall not” abridge those rights, but that’s a limitation only against Congress and the federal government. It does say “No one shall” abridge those right. Therefore, The Second Amendment does not prohibit states, counties, cities, villages, or even apartment-building owners from doing as they wish within their limited jurisdictions. The counter-force to this is that, in most cases, people can accept the limitations or choose not to live in that apartment building. That can be inconvenient, but it is the price of freedom-of-choice.] -GEG

A housing developer with multiple properties in New Jersey is warning that tenants who possess, store, or carry firearms on their developments will face a “notice to vacate.”

The developer, RPM Development Group, issued a notice of the policy to all residents and that notice was acquired and published by the New Jersey Second Amendment Society.

Breitbart News spoke with RPM General Counsel David Steinberg, who confirmed that the policy says, “No one will be permitted to store, or carry a gun or rifle, or any other type of firearm of any kind in the building, or on the grounds.”

The notice goes on to say, “If it is discovered that you do have a firearm of any kind on this property, you will received a Notice to Cease, followed by a Notice to Vacate.”

Israel Attacks Syria,
Threatens Iran, and Draws US

Closer to Full-Scale War

Israel has wanted to wage war against Iran for years to maintain its nuclear monopoly. After Trump exited the Iranian Nuclear Deal, Israel (allegedly) bombed Syria, killing eight Iranian soldiers. Israel claims Iran shot rockets into its territory. Escalation is underway and seems destined to draw America into full-scale war in support of Israel. President Trump and the US Congress have pledged to commit American military might and American lives to this goal. -GEG

The mainstream media has largely ignored airstrikes on Syria, south of Damascus, which reportedly killed at least eight Iranian soldiers. The attack was widely attributed to Israel and was launched just hours after Trump terminated the Iran nuclear deal on May 8th. The foreign policy of the US government is heavily influenced by the Israeli lobby, so there is no reason to doubt that the US will enter a new war with Iran on behalf of Israel's objectives.

Israel said that it would assassinate Syrian President Assad if he allows Iranian troops to remain inside his borders.

Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu, who is in jeopardy of being ousted and imprisoned if found guilty in a corruption investigation, has been advocating war with Iran for many years. Because Russia has been backing Syria, Netanyahu flew to Russia after the (Israeli) attack to meet with Putin to test Putin's resolve to defend Syria. Putin's response was to present him with a military parade that showed off 'Kinzhal', a nuclear-capable missile that he says is 'invincible' because it can penetrate any missile defense system.

The following day, mainstream media published reports by Israel that Iran fired about 20 rockets at Israeli targets in the Golan Heights, a region of Syria that has been illegally occupied by Israel since 1967. Iran has yet to confirm whether they initiated the retaliatory strike.

Sarah Huckabee Sanders appeared on Fox News and said that the reported rocket attack on Israel shows that Iran cannot be trusted and that Israel has a right to defend itself, yet she omitted saying anything about the attack on Syria that provoked the response.

Hezbollah in Lebanon just won an electoral victory and a mandate for ongoing war, which was a source of irritation for Israel.

Events are expected to become even more sensitive as Trump's daughter, Ivanka, and her husband, Jared Kushner, are due to arrive in Israel in the next few days for the opening of the US embassy in Jerusalem.

Palestinians have been protesting the 'Nakba' which means catastrophe, and refers to the war with Israelis in 1948 that left 700,000 Palestinians uprooted from their homes, creating a refugee crisis that is still not resolved. May 15th will mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba, which will stoke additional tension.

An email from Hillary Clinton when she was Secretary of State shows that US leaders have committed to support Israel at all costs, including the expenditure of American lives, and that this war has been planned for years. Here is an excerpt:

"The best way to help Israel deal with Iran's growing nuclear capability is to help the people of Syria overthrow the regime of Bashar Assad.

Negotiations to limit Iran's nuclear program will not solve Israel's security dilemma. Nor will they stop Iran from improving the crucial part of any nuclear weapons program – the capability to enrich uranium. At best, the talks between the world's major powers and Iran that began in Istanbul this April and will continue in Baghdad in May will enable Israel to postpone by a few months a decision whether to launch an attack on Iran that could provoke a major Mideast war.

Iran's nuclear program and Syria's civil war may seem unconnected, but they are. For Israeli leaders, the real threat from a nuclear-armed Iran is not the prospect of an insane Iranian leader launching an unprovoked Iranian nuclear attack on Israel that would lead to the annihilation of both countries. What Israeli military leaders really worry about – but cannot talk about – is losing their nuclear monopoly...”
