

Watch: #WalkAway Movement to Abandon Democrat Party Goes Viral

A grassroots campaign on social media began when Brandon Straka, a gay hairdresser from New York city, explained that he was leaving the Democrat party because he rejects hate, racism, false victimhood, hatred, media lies, and being cast as a victim. The Democratic party has aligned with the radical left.