

Facebook Censored the US Declaration of Independence as a Violation of “Hate Speech”

A Texas newspaper posted an excerpt from the US Declaration of Independence on Facebook, and it was removed for being “hate speech”. The term “Indian Savages” might have triggered Facebook’s filtering program- it is ironic that the words of Thomas Jefferson are censored in America. Although the US doesn’t have any “hate speech” laws, Mark Zuckerberg’s company simply applies Germany’s stringent censorship laws in America.
