

DOJ and IG Horowitz Ignored Evidence that 30,000 Clinton Emails Were Sent to a 'Foreign Entity'

written by GEG | July 16, 2018

During the Strzok hearing, it was revealed that former Inspector General Chuck McCullough discovered that nearly all of Hillary Clinton's 30,000 emails on her homebrew server went to a foreign entity that isn't Russia. Strzok ignored the revelation from McCullough's office. Four separate attempts were also made to notify DOJ Inspector General Michael Horowitz to brief him on the massive security breach, however Horowitz "never returned the call."
