

Whoopi Goldberg from The View Had a Meltdown when She Was Accused of Having 'Trump Derangement Syndrome'

Whoopi Goldberg shouted down Judge Jeanine Pirro, author of Liars, Leakers and Liberals, after she told the co-host that she suffered from 'Trump derangement syndrome.' Judge Pirro said that she was kicked off of the show and out of the building. Whoopi blamed Donald Trump for the hatred that is dividing the country, while ignoring the media that is complicit in fanning the flames of discord, instead of pursuing understanding and tolerance.

"You know what? You suffer from 'Trump Derangement Syndrome,'" she added, looking at Goldberg.

"Did you just point at me," Goldberg interjected.

"Yes," Judge Pirro responded.

"Listen, I don't have Trump derangement. Let me tell you what I have," the co-host exclaimed. "I have a lot of – I'm tired of people starting a conversation with 'Mexicans are liars and rapists.' I'm tired of people starting a conversation about this country."

"Listen, I'm 62 years old," Goldberg added. " There have been a lot of people in office that I didn't agree with. But I have never, ever seen anything like this. I have never seen anybody whip up such hate. I have never seen anybody be so dismissive."

"And I – and clearly you don't watch the show," she continued. "So you don't know that I don't suffer from that. What I suffer from is the inability to figure out how to fix this. That's my issue. But one of the things that you talk about a lot – and I'm curious about it – is the deep state. How long has the deep state been there, and who is running it?"

Pirro was a guest on Sean Hannity's radio show later in the afternoon and described her interaction with Goldberg after the show.

"Whoopi I fought for victims my whole life and she came at me as I was leaving and she said 'F you' in my face – literally spitting at me, 'F you, get the F out of this building.' And I said to her, 'did you just say that?' She said that's what I said, 'get the F out of this building' and she was screaming at me and I'm walking out of the building like a dog who was just kicked off," Pirro said to Hannity.

"I have never been treated like that in my life. I was stunned," she added on the show.

South Africa: White Boer Farmers May Settle in Russia to Escape Genocide

South Africa: Boer farmers, who descended from Dutch settlers, are being brutally slaughtered due to racial animosity, and because they own great swaths of land that the Bantu people are told was stolen from them. South Africa is arid, and the Boer farmers who developed modern agricultural skills made the land sufficiently productive to feed the nation. Boer farmers who now wish to return to the Netherlands have been denied permission by their motherland to do so. They also are refused by Europe. Russia is considering taking in 15,000 Boer farmers but requires a payment of $100,000 per family to lease the Russian farmland. -GEG

Tucker Carlson Describes Trump's Expression of Faith in US Intelligence Agencies as a 'Hostage Tape'

Tucker Carlson called Trump's capitulation to the intelligence community's line that Russia is a major threat a 'hostage tape.' Tucker then gave examples of how US intelligence agencies, the deep state, and NGOs, have kept America in wars for the past 20 years, including the invasion of Iraq, the killing of Libyan President Moamar Gadhafi, and the prolonged Syrian war that led to open borders in Europe. He asks: Why would Trump or anyone else have confidence in the integrity of these entities? -GEG
