The New York Times published an anonymous op-ed from a member of the Trump administration who declared him or herself “part of the Resistance inside the Trump administration” Wednesday afternoon.

In the sub-headline of the Times article, the anonymous staffer declares “I work for the president but like-minded colleagues and I have vowed to thwart parts of his agenda and his worst inclinations.” The editorial board introduce the author, a “senior official in the Trump administration,” with gender-neutral language, but a tweet from the publication calls the author a “he.”

Though the headline uses the phrase “the Resistance,” the author appears to be a Never-Trump conservative in the mold of Rep. Paul Ryan (R-WI), touting “deregulation” and “historic tax reform” as successes that “have come despite – not because of – the president’s leadership style.”

“We want the administration to succeed and think that many of its policies have already made America safer and more prosperous,” the individual writes, but “the president continues to act in a manner that is detrimental to the health of our republic.”

The staffer’s definition of what is supposedly “detrimental” to the country seems to be anything other than establishment GOP orthodoxy.

“Although he was elected as a Republican, the president shows little affinity for ideals long espoused by conservatives: free minds, free markets and free people. At best, he has invoked these ideals in scripted settings. At worst, he has attacked them outright,” the staffer writes.

The anonymous writer goes on to admit that on many issues, members of the administration are working against the president.

“Americans should know that there are adults in the room,” the piece continues. “We fully recognize what is happening. And we are trying to do what’s right even when Donald Trump won’t.”

The anonymous staffer assures readers: “This isn’t the work of the so-called deep state. It’s the work of the steady state.”

Finally, the writer finishes the post by heaping praise on the late John McCain, referring to him as “a lodestar for restoring honor to public life and our national dialogue” and accusing Trump of fearing “such honorable men” like McCain.

Germany: 10-Year Old Boy Pinned Down and Raped By 10-Year Old Afghani Migrant.

Authorities Say He Is Too Young to Prosecute.

Germany: A 10-year old boy was reported to have been raped during a school field trip by a 10-year old Afghani classmate while two 11-year old boys, from Afghanistan and Iraq, pinned the boy down. Two other students watched the abuse, but did not intervene. The three assailants were expelled from school, and authorities have dropped the case, stating that the boys are too young to be tried in the justice system.

Many migrants across Europe are young adults who pose as children for increased welfare benefits and to attend school. This is important to know, because it is unknown whether the minors involved in this case really are young children as they claim to be. Deportation apparently is not a consideration. - GEG

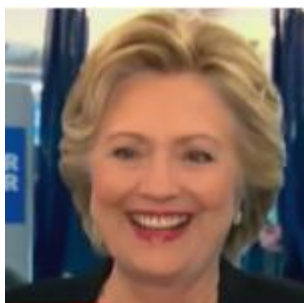

German authorities have dropped a case in which a 10-year-old Afghan boy raped a classmate during a school trip while Syrian and Afghan accomplices held him down, as the perpetrators are apparently not old enough to be tried.

The incident began when 38 students from a Berlin school went on a field trip to Schloss Kröchlendorff, a castle in Nordwestuckermark, Germany. The students were supposed to have a fun day out enjoying nature – but that wasn't possible for everyone.

The day turned horrific for a 10-year-old boy, who was told by the perpetrators: "We fk you today!" A total of three boys ganged up on the victim; an Afghan and a Syrian, both aged 11, held him down while a 10-year-old Afghan boy sexually abused and raped him, according to the Berliner Zeitung.

Two other classmates saw the incident unfold, but did not notify any teachers. It was not until a week-and-a-half later that a friend of the victim told a social worker at school what had occurred.

Over a Dozen CIA Agents May Have Died Over Hillary's Leaked Emails

China captured up to 20 CIA agents between 2010 and 2012, and tortured or murdered them after identifying them from Hillary Clinton's hacked emails when she was Secretary of State. The Inspector General tried to warn the FBI of a Chinese company that had breached Clinton's homebrew server, but the FBI ignored the warnings. In 2016, the FBI concluded that Hillary did send and receive classified information over her unsecured server, and that it was hacked by a foreign entity. -GEG
