written by GEG | January 23, 2019

Australia: A recent study using laboratory mice showed that vitamin D supplements during pregnancy can prevent the onset of autism spectrum disorder in offspring. The lead researcher said that the results demonstrate that vitamin D levels are a crucial factor in brain development.

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez Predicts World Will End in 12 Years If We Don't Address Global Warming

written by GEG | January 23, 2019

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez predicted that “the world is going to end in in 12 years” and that “the UN says we’ve got 12 years to fix it.” The UN claimed in 1989 “entire nations could be wiped off the face of the Earth” if global warming were not reversed by the year 2000.

Tijuana: 17 Murders in 28 Hours, and a Total of 153 in January So Far

written by GEG | January 23, 2019

Seventeen murders were recorded in Tijuana over a 28-hour period; most of them involving low-level dealers, lookouts, customers, and enforcers in the illegal drug trade. The bloodshed is generally related to turf wars involving Cártel Tijuana Nueva Generación (CTNG) against the Sinaloa Cartel.

Has Dollar Has Lost Half Its Value in the Last Few Years?

written by GEG | January 23, 2019

The Federal Reserve creates more dollars each day chasing the same amount of goods, so it takes more dollars to buy them. Manufacturers, instead of showing the rising price, choose to reduce the quantity or quality of their goods, and most people thereby are not aware of how severe inflation actually is.
