

Italy: Deputy Prime Minister Salvini Stops Open-Borders Activist by Saying He Will Send Migrants to Live in the Activist's House

Italian Deputy Prime Minister Matteo Salvini is confronted by a leftist who calls him a murderer for rejecting mass immigration to Italy. Salvini turns the tables by asking the man for his name and address so 10 or 20 migrants can be sent to live there. Salvini says the real murderers are the smugglers who buy weapons and drugs with their ill-gotten gains. -GEG