

Slap on the Wrist: Jussie Smollett Charged with One Count of 'Disorderly Conduct'

Actor, Jussie Smollett, has been charged with one count of felony disorderly conduct for filing a false police report. Smollett faces a maximum one and a half years in prison. The Nigerian brothers who allegedly helped him stage the fake hate crime are not facing any charges. Chicago Police say Smollett sent himself a racist and homophobic letter and was dissatisfied with his salary on the show "Empire."

2020 Dem hopefuls, Senators Cory Booker and Kamala Harris, rushed to judgment after Jussie Smollett claimed white-racist Trump supporters ambushed him with bleach and a noose. Both Senators called the hoax a "modern-day lynching" and used the phony scandal to pass an anti-lynching bill through Congress. Republicans, who claim to be opposed to federal hate-crime laws, gave their unanimous support to the bill out of fear of being labeled as "pro-lynching." -GEG

It looks like Jussie Smollett is going to get a mere slap on the wrist for allegedly lying to police and manufacturing a fake hate crime against himself to libel half the country as evil racists.

“Empire” actor Jussie Smollett has been charged with one count of felony disorderly conduct for filing a false police report, the Cook County State’s Attorney’s Office said Wednesday evening.

Smollett is due in court in Chicago at 1:30 p.m. Thursday. Chicago police spokesman Anthony Guglielmi said CPD detectives will make contact with Smollett’s legal team to “negotiate a reasonable surrender for his arrest.”

Smollett is not in custody at this time. Guglielmi told ABC News police are not actively looking for the actor because “this is not a violent crime,” but said “the longer this goes, the more we have to do what we have to do.”

Smollett faces at most one and a half years in prison. The Nigerian brothers who allegedly helped him stage this fake hate crime are not facing any charges.
