

Tijuana Drug War Rages: 21 People Murdered in Less than 48 Hours

written by GEG | April 8, 2019

Tijuana, right across the 'open border' with San Diego, is listed as the deadliest city in the world based on its 2018 homicide rate. Over a period of less than 48 hours last week, 21 people were murdered in a grisly fashion to make a statement to the living. Most of the bloodshed is related to drug-cartel turf wars.

"It Belongs to the People, Not the Bankers" – Italian Politicians Want To Seize Gold from the Country's Central Bank

written by GEG | April 8, 2019

The populists and communists want to force the private banks to sell their shares and say the people are the rightful owners of the gold worth $102 billion. In truth, it is owned by the politicians. All that is happening is that the gold and the power of legalized plunder will move from one group to another.
