

China Says Its Social Credit System Has 'Restored Morality' by Blacklisting Over 13-Million People

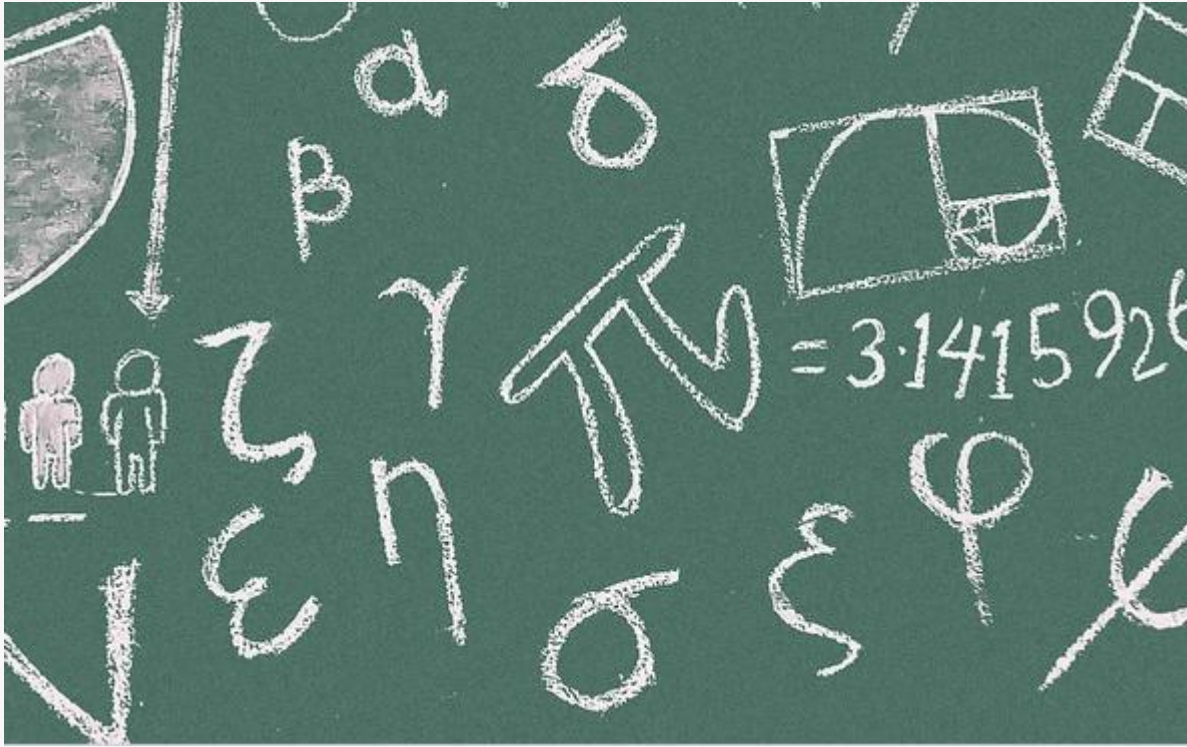

written by GEG | May 17, 2019

China revealed that, as of March, the Social-Credit system has blocked an unspecified number of citizens from buying over 23-million airplane, train, and bus tickets.

College Board Trying to Preempt A Possible Supreme Court Rule against College Admissions Based on Race by Using Secret 'Adversity Score'

written by GEG | May 17, 2019

The move is an attempt to do away with differences in test scores that theoretically result from disparities in wealth and education and, by so doing, preempt a possible ruling from the Supreme Court on race-based affirmative action.

Alabama Passes Strict Anti-Abortion Law to Challenge Supreme Court's Decision in Roe v. Wade

written by GEG | May 17, 2019

The bill is intended to challenge the Supreme Court's decision in Roe v. Wade, in which the high court enshrined the right to abortion as a constitutional right, though such a thing does not exist in the Constitution.