

Children Are Growing Horns on the Back of Their Heads Due to Looking Down at Their Smart Phones

written by GEG | June 21, 2019

An Australian study showed that some people, especially teens, are suffering from 'text neck,' which is muscle weakness that causes the body makes more bone on the back of the head to compensate. The new bone spurs will be passed down to future generations through epigenetics.

Trump Confirms He Called Off Retaliatory Attack Against Iran 10 Minutes Before the Strike

written by GEG | June 21, 2019

An American surveillance drone was shot down by Iranian forces and Trump was set to strike three sites in Iran but he reversed course after military leaders disclosed that 150 people would likely be killed. Trump wrote that it would not be a proportionate response to downing a drone that did not have anyone on board.

Democrat Staffer Jackson Cosko Gets 4 Years in Prison for Doxxing GOP Senators During Kavanaugh Hearings

written by GEG | June 21, 2019

Jackson Cosko, 27, who was accused of doxxing US Senators in October 2018, during the Kavanaugh hearing, and also threatened to leak the lawmakers' children's health information if any witnesses dared go to the authorities about his criminal activities. He pleaded guilty to five felonies in April, including making public restricted personal information, computer fraud, witness tampering and obstruction of justice. He was sentenced to four years in prison, and the judge said that the sentence was intended to signal that politically driven criminal harassment will be punished severely.

In October 2018, during the senate hearings for Judge Brett Kavanaugh, Capitol Police arrested 27-year-old Jackson Cosko of DC for "allegedly posting private, identifying information (doxxing) about one or more United States Senators."

Accused 'doxxer' 27-year-old Jackson Cosko also threatened to leak Republican Senators' children's health information if any witnesses dared go to the authorities about his criminal activities.

Magistrate Judge Deborah Robinson ordered 27-year-old Jackson Cosko of D.C. to continue to be held without bond.

Read full article here...