

That meme you shared? It may soon cost you $15,000.

The CASE Act would slap a $15,000 fine on sharing a meme you didn't make or downloading a photo from social media. It would create a separate, industry-friendly system for copyright claims to $30,000, with no option of appeal.