

Algerian Immigrants in France Rip Down Statue of Former President General de Gaulle

Algerian soccer fans caused chaos in the aftermath of their team's win in Africa's Cup soccer championship match on July 19th in cities across France, looting shops, robbing victims and attacking police. Video from Evreux, France shows Algerian migrants tearing down a statue of General Charles de Gaulle while cheering vociferously. In another video, an Algerian migrant states, "We did faster than the Germans we took Paris in 3 hours." Another clip shows an Algerian proclaiming to the camera, "France used to colonize us, but today we colonize them."

A video out of Evreux, France shows Algerian migrants tearing down a statue of General Charles de Gaulle while cheering vociferously.

The statue is wrapped in Algerian flags as fireworks fly by and the sound of motobike engines being revved can be heard.
