

Dutch Family Discovered Living in Cellar for Years Waiting for World to End

written by GEG | October 17, 2019

A secret staircase hidden behind a cupboard in the living room led to an underground living space where the family has lived for the past seven years, expecting a global catastrophe. The family fed themselves with a self-sustaining vegetable farm and needed almost no contact with the outside world.

Democrat Presidential Candidates Are Openly Advocating for Communism

written by GEG | October 17, 2019

Communist policies that already are ravaging America include a state-controlled banking monopoly, a progressive income tax, and 'free' government schools. Democrats now are reviving other planks of the Communist Manifesto including Bernie Sanders' proposal for an 77% inheritance tax.
