

Media and Democrats Bash Trump over US Killing ISIS Leader, Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi. Russians Are Not Convinced It Happened.

The media and Democrats heavily criticized President Trump for allegedly approving the killing of Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi. Some even said that this only reinforces their murderous ideology. Russia's defense ministry says it has no reliable information about US servicemen conducting an operation for 'yet another' elimination of the former ISIS leader, referring to three previous instances where international media reported Baghdadi's death. The US military gave Baghdadi a burial at sea, making it impossible to prove that he was executed. It seems that reporting the killing of hated enemies is useful to build popularity among the folks back home. -GEG
