SCOTUS Allows Sandy Hook Victims' Lawsuit Against Gun Manufacturer, Remington Arms, to Continue

written by GEG | November 15, 2019

The court's decision allowed plaintiffs to go after the gun manufacturer, claiming the weapons were marketed and advertised as "military-style" arms to civilians to kill their enemies. This could lead to the end of the manufacture of guns.

New York City Will Start Bribing Criminals To Show Up To Court After Cash Bail Is Removed

written by GEG | November 15, 2019

In 2020, offenders will be released without cash bail for most misdemeanor charges and multiple felonies, including criminally negligent homicide, drug sales, aggravated assault on a child, and burglary. Criminal justice reform ignores the rights of victims.
