

Bombshell: Chemical Weapons Watchdog Accused of Evidence-Tampering by Its Own Inspectors in Chlorine Gas Attack Used to Justify Regime Change War in Syria

written by GEG | November 27, 2019

The lack of nerve agents and low levels of chlorine indicate that there was no gas attack. The media is ignoring this important story while the head of the OPCW is standing by its false conclusions.

Judge Rules In Favor Of Washington Man Who Had Guns Seized Over Satirical 'Joker' Meme

written by GEG | November 27, 2019

Donnelly claimed the posts, including fantasies of hurting women, were jokes meant for his friends. He has no criminal record, and his lawyer described the weapons seizure as an intrusion on both his First Amendment and Second Amendment rights.
