Palestinian Anger Over Trump's 'Deal of the Century' Is Met with Israeli Tear Gas & Rubber Bullets in West Bank

President Trump recently unveiled his new Middle East peace plan, calling it "the deal of the century." The plan would create a small Palestinian state in the West Bank while allowing Israel to annex nearly all the settlements in the territory. After the announcement, clashes erupted between Palestinians and the Israeli army which responded with tear gas and rubber bullets. -GEG

Leader of the Militant "Neo-

Nazi” Group Exposed As Intelligence Contractor Who May Also Be a Federal Agent

Less than two weeks ago, we published a story about Virginia Governor Ralph Northam declaring a state of emergency over a gun rally in the capitol after the arrest of three men who were reported to be part of a “white supremacist” group, The Base. We we said that it appeared to be part of an intelligence-agency set-up. It now has been revealed that the leader of the “white supremacist, neo-Nazi, terrorist group,” The Base, is an intelligence contractor and suspected federal agent. He operated under the name ‘Norman Spear’ and was identified by the UK Guardian as US-born Rinaldo Nazzaro. We believe that The Base could be a ploy to recruit unstable people and to cause public revulsion against those who the group appears to support . Nazzaro’s Twitter account under ‘Norman Spear’ openly tries to incite people to commit violent crimes, which fits the pattern perfectly. GEG
