

Chelsea Clinton Rakes in $9-Million as Board Member of Company Controlled by Clinton Supporter, Barry Diller

written by GEG | January 9, 2020

Former first daughter Chelsea Clinton made $9 million since 2011 while serving as a board member for the IAC/InterActiveCorp, a media and internet investment company that has an ownership stake in 150 well-known brands, such as Vimeo, Match, Tinder, Daily Beast, Investopedia, Angie's List and Home Advisor. In October 2018, Clinton reportedly was paid $6.6 million for joining the IAC's board. However, it was unclear at the time what exactly her role entailed. Both IAC and Expedia are controlled by Barry Diller, the business and television mogul, who is a friend of Hillary Clinton. There seems to be little difference between the oligarchs in the Ukraine paying off Hunter Biden and oligarchs like Diller paying off Chelsea Clinton.

This is part and parcel of living in a globalist kleptocracy.

From The Hill:

Chelsea Clinton has reaped $9 million in compensation since 2011 for serving on the board of an internet investment company, according to Barron's, the financial publication.

Barron's reported Sunday that Clinton has profited handsomely as a board member for IAC/InterActiveCorp, a media and internet investment company that has an ownership stake in 150 well-known brands, such as Vimeo, Tinder, Angie's List and Home Advisor.

Clinton, the only child of former President Bill Clinton and former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, has served on IAC's board since 2011 and receives an annual $50,000 retainer and $250,000 worth of restricted IAC stock units, Barron's reports.

[...] Clinton was named to the board of Expedia Group in March of 2017, a position that typically earned $250,000 in 2015, according to a report at the time by The Guardian.

Both IAC and Expedia are controlled by Barry Diller, the business and television mogul, who is a friend of Hillary Clinton.

Is there any difference between the oligarchs in the Ukraine paying off Hunter Biden and oligarchs like Diller paying off Chelsea Clinton?

I don't see one.

Here's a list of their holdings:
