

College Admissions Case: Lori Loughlin's Attorney Claims FBI Directed Scandal Mastermind to Lie, and that the Prosecution Withheld Evidence

written by GEG | February 28, 2020

Singer's personal notes point to FBI investigators directing him to lie and say that he made everyone involved with the scam aware their payments were bribery rather than legitimate donations. The lawyer says that Singer noted the Government's desire to 'nail' one of the defendants 'at all costs.'