

VA Gov Ralph Northam Repeals Virginia Voter ID Laws, Implements 'Motor Voter'

written by GEG | April 14, 2020

Virginia will no longer require voters to present a photo ID in order to cast a ballot. Additionally, Virginia will implement automatic voter registration for people who access services at the DMV, known as 'motor voter' laws that open the door to illegal aliens voting in elections.