

Los Angeles: During Protest Week, Homicides Soared 250%, Shootings 56%

written by GEG | June 11, 2020

Crime escalated because police who normally would have been patrolling neighborhoods were pulled off the beat to secure downtown areas targeted by looters. In Chicago, May 31 marked the single deadliest 24-hour period in 60 years, with 18 people killed.