

Minnesota Governor's Daughter Used Tweet to Deliver Intel to Looters and Rioters

written by GEG | June 1, 2020

Hope Waltz, who is the daughter of Minnesota Governor Tim Walz, tweeted information on Thursday advising that the National Guard would not be deployed or make arrests that night. Isra Hirsi,, the daughter of Minnesota Congresswoman Ilhan Omar, tweeted out a list of needed supplies for rioters at the police precinct that was burned down. -GEG We knew from recent rallies and riots that it's highly likely the groups behind today's riots are Domestic terrorists, revolutionary communists, US based radical Islamist organizations and others related to the Democrat Party. Today we have more proof this is the case.

We reported a few days ago that Minnesota Representative Ilhan Omar's daughter tweeted out support for the protestors:

Minnesota Democrat Rep. Ilhan Omar's daughter Isra Hirsi, retweeted a list of supplies for "comrades" who are rioting in Minneapolis.

Isra Hirsi is the co-founder of US Youth Climate Strike and her Twitter bio says she 'hates capitalism.'

Isra Hirsi retweeted a post from Twin Cities DSA (Democratic Socialists of America):
Want to help out your comrades protesting at the 3rd precinct (at Lake and Minnehaha?)

Here's a good list of much needed supplies (except for milk! Water is always better for eyewashing than milk!! Please don't bring milk!)

But there is more to this story. Similar tweets supporting the rioters were being tweeted by Minnesota Democrat Governor Tim Walz's daughter – Hope Walz. She later deleted her account.

This appears to be how Democrats and Islamists are communicating instructions regarding the riots – through their children!
