

Missouri Attorney General Moves to Dismiss Weapons Charges Against McCloskeys

written by GEG | July 21, 2020

Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt filed a brief seeking to dismiss Gardner's charges against the McCloskeys on the grounds that they were legally exercising their Second-Amendment rights. Meanwhile, the violent trespassers are free. McCloskey says he will not be intimidated.

France: Fire Causes Significant Damage to 15th-Century Gothic Cathedral

written by GEG | July 21, 2020

It took two hours for a hundred firefighters to contain the fire at the Gothic masterpiece, which destroyed the baroque 1627 grand organ, stained glass windows, sculptures, and art.
