

Why Did Mega-Corporations Accept COVID-19 Lockdowns?

BlackRock, State Street, and the Vanguard Group are the 'Big-Three' investment firms that are said to own corporate America. They are heavily invested in the medical, pharmaceutical, and vaccine industries, all of which stand to enjoy obscene profits from treatments for the flu – renamed COVID-19.