

Leaders of Black Lives Matter Send List of Demands to Louisville Businesses for Gentrification

written by GEG | August 5, 2020

Black Lives Matter protesters, claiming that gentrification by White people has caused destruction of low-income Black communities, sent a letter to local businesses with the alleged goal of increasing diversity but with a more apparent goal of demanding money.