

Food Shortages Have Begun – Which is Why this Woman Teaches How to Grow Your Own Groceries in the City

Marjory Wildcraft is featured in “Who’s Who in America” for her work in returning to natural medicine and restoring heirloom gardens and livestock – even if you live in the city. National Geographic featured Marjory as an expert in sustainable living. She has hosted “Homesteading Summit” on Mother Earth News and the annual Home Grown Food Summit, which reaches hundreds of thousands of viewers every year. Her DVD series, Grow Your Own Groceries, has over a half million copies in use by homesteaders, preppers, universities, and missionary organizations around the world. Marjory will be a featured speaker on this topic at G. Edward Griffin’s Red Pill Expo, on October 10 and 11, at Jekyll Island, Georgia. Tickets are on sale for either physical attendance or live stream here: <https://redpillexpo.org/>. -GEG

Video and guest speakers may be viewed at our event website:
RedPillExpo.org

Your browser does not support the video tag.

Colorado: Thousands Attend Rally Against COVID Restrictions as Media Remains Silent

Jefferson County, Colorado: Thousands of people gathered at the Bandimere Speedway that hosted a 'peaceful protest' to "Stop the COVID Chaos". The demonstration was in support of two lawsuits, one filed by Bandimere Speedway against Jefferson County for its health regulations on businesses. The second was filed by Colorado House minority leader Representative Patrick Neville against Governor Jared Polis's emergency mask mandate. Jefferson County Public Health is taking Bandimere Speedway to court for the rally, saying it violated public health orders. Jefferson County is also requesting that Bandimere pay the county's cost to defend itself against the charges. -GEG

Thousands of supporters gathered at Bandimere speedway on Tuesday night, though they did not gather to watch racing. This, in many attendees' words, was a peaceful protest.

The Stop the COVID Chaos Rally was held to promote two lawsuits being filed against Colorado policies related to COVID-19. The first is being filed by Bandimere Speedway against Jefferson County for its health regulations on businesses. The second is being filed by Colorado House minority leader Rep. Patrick Neville against Gov. Jared Polis's emergency mask mandate.

"The crux of our lawsuit is that the governor is violating the separation of powers," said Neville during an interview at the rally. "People are fed up, they want to get back to work they want to get the economy back up and that is what most of the people are here for."

Bandimere was specifically warned by the health department not to break the social distancing guidelines put forward by the county and state.

A letter from Jefferson County Public Health sent to the race track on Tuesday told the operators to "follow all public health orders."

"Given the absence of an approved plan for this event, we are hopeful that Bandimere intends to cap attendance at 175 attendees or less," it read.

Photos from the event show attendees numbered not in the hundreds, but the thousands.

The event is not the first this summer to draw ire from Jefferson County. In July, the county health department sued Bandimere for holding a Fourth of July fireworks celebration that also had an estimated crowd size in the thousands.

Read full article here...

Fox News Host Cuts Off Guest When He Links BLM Antifa Violence to George Soros

Newt Gingrich, the former Speaker of the House, was shut down by Harris Faulkner, a Fox News host, and Marie Harf, a former Obama administration State Department staffer and CIA analyst, when he blamed liberal progressive prosecuting attorneys, who have been funded by billionaire George Soros, for the violence and $2-billion in property damage caused by rioters. Most damage from riots is not covered by insurance. Gingrich said that Joe Biden and Kamala Harris have praised “progressive” district attorneys who are anti-police, pro-criminal, and the major cause of the violence we are seeing because the prosecutors release criminals back onto the streets. Ms. Faulkner then told Gingrich that she wasn’t sure Soros should be brought into the conversation, and Harf agreed. [Soros funding is perhaps the most important single cause of the growing street terrorism in America and in other countries as well. The fact that this is taboo for public discussion at the supposedly conservative Fox News and even the White House, is powerful evidence of controlled opposition.] -GEG

-GEG

FOX News host Harris Faulkner asked Newt Gingrich not to discuss conspiracy theories about international financier George Soros and his role in funding left-wing political groups, leaving the former House Speaker confused on Wednesday afternoon.

“The number one problem in almost all the cities is George Soros-elected, left-wing, antipolice pro-criminal district attorneys,” Gingrich began.

Fox host Harris Faulkner interrupted: “I’m not sure we need to bring George Soros into this.”

“He paid for it,” Gingrich replied. “I mean, why can’t we discuss that fact that millions of dollars.”

“No he didn’t,” stated former Obama administration State Department staffer Marie Harf. “George Soros doesn’t need to be a part of this conversation.”

“Okay... So, it’s verboten?” Gingrich asked.

Read full article here...

Watch full video for context here:

Antifa Camp Out on Land Owned by City of Portland

Portland: Two weeks ago, a YouTube channel, Never Alone With Christ, exposed Antifa's lair, which is a tent city in a parking lot on or next to 1351 SE Water Avenue, which is reported to be owned by the city of Portland. It appears that the camp extends towards the river onto a lot owned by the Oregon Department of Transportation. The camp is orderly and has at least four portable toilets. It was supposedly set up for homeless people but has been used as a convenience for rioters. In the video, the camera operator says that used drug needles were scattered over the ground inside the encampment, and he noticed Camillo Massagi, aka "Trumpet Man", who is a fixture at Portland riots with an extensive arrest record. Antifa members travel between cities for protest activity and coordinate on social media. In Kenosha, Wisconsin, half of the people arrested during the riots did not live there.-GEG

A videographer claims to have discovered an "Antifa War Camp" in Portland. A user called Never alone with Christ posted full length video of the camp which spread across social media, saying that the "war encampment" had been located.

During the recording the videographer notices Camillo Massagi aka "Trumpet Man" who is a fixture at Portland riots and has an extensive arrest record.

Read full article here...

Nebraska Bar Owner Arrested for Killing Rioter in Self Defense Case

Jake Gardner, the white Nebraska bar owner who shot dead a 22-year old black George Floyd protester in May, was hit with a slew of charges this week, more than a month after prosecutors deemed the killing was self-defense. The District Attorney admitted that they were “pressured” by local activists and politicians to bring the charges.

A Nebraska bar owner that killed a rioter has been charged with “terrorism” and “manslaughter” by a District Attorney who initially admitted it was blatant self defense.

The DA has also admitted that they were “pressured” by local activists and politicians to bring the charges.

The bar owner, Jake Gardner, has now been indicted by a grand jury on counts of manslaughter, use of a firearm in the commission of a felony, attempted first-degree assault and making terrorist threats.

On May 30, the 38-year-old bar owner confronted a group of rioters outside one of the bars he owns in Omaha and was knocked to the ground.

“From there, he fired two warning shots and tried to get to his feet, prosecutors said. As he did, Gardner got into a fight with one man, James Scurlock, 22. The two scuffled before Gardner fired a shot that killed him,” Yahoo News reports.

The incident prompted a wave of further “protests,” particularly after Donald Kleine, the Douglas County attorney, determined that Gardner had acted in self-defense and declined to bring charges.

“A week later, Kleine said in a statement that after hearing from local residents and elected officials he would welcome an outside review ‘in this rare instance.’ He added, ‘I made a decision and I would not change that decision based on everything I know today,’” the Yahoo report explains.

Douglas County District Court Judge Shelly Stratman then appointed a special council, Fredrick Franklin, an assistant U.S. attorney in the U.S. Attorney’s Office in Omaha, to handle the case, though they said they expected the same outcome.

Read full article here...

Additional source:

<https://nypost.com/2020/09/17/nebraska-bar-owner-who-killed-george-floyd-protester-charged/>

The US Is in a Color Revolution Straight Out of

the Color Revolution Playbook

Derren Beattie of Revolver News explained that the US is caught in a regime-change coup, known as a color revolution, and one of the main characteristics of this operation is an engineered, contested election combined with massive “peaceful” protests. This strategy has been used in Eastern Europe, and the same people who orchestrated those coups are involved in this one against Trump. Norm Eisen is Obama’s former ethics czar and is behind over 180 lawsuits against Trump, he authored 10 articles of impeachment against Trump, and he was special counsel to the Democrats for the impeachment process. Regime change professionals like McFaul, Eisen, George Kent, and others use the same tools, the same tactics, and quite literally, the same playbook. George Soros appears again as a financier behind protesters to cause division., just as he did in Ukraine.

In our report on Never Trump State Department official George Kent, Revolver News first drew attention to the ominous similarities between the strategies and tactics the United States government employs in so-called “Color Revolutions” and the coordinated efforts of government bureaucrats, NGOs, and the media to oust President Trump.

Our recent follow-up to this initial report focused specifically on a shadowy, George Soros linked group called the Transition Integrity Project (TIP), which convened “war games” exercises suggesting the likelihood of a “contested election scenario,” and of ensuing chaos should President Trump refuse to leave office. We further showed how these “contested election” scenarios we are hearing so much about play perfectly into the Color Revolution framework sketched out Revolver News’ first installment in the Color Revolution series.

This third installment of Revolver News’ series exposing the Color Revolution against Trump will focus on one quiet and indeed mostly overlooked participant in the Transition Integrity Project's biased election "war games" exercise—a man by the name of Norm Eisen.

As the man who implemented the David Brock blueprint for suing the President into paralysis and his allies into bankruptcy, who helped mainstream and amplify the Russia Hoax, who drafted 10 articles of impeachment for the Democrats a full month before President Trump ever called the Ukraine President in 2018, who personally served as special counsel litigating the Ukraine impeachment, who created a template for Internet censorship of world leaders and a handbook for mass mobilizing racial justice protesters to overturn democratic election results, there is perhaps no man alive with a more decorated resume for plots against President Trump.

Indeed, the story of Norm Eisen – a key architect of nearly every attempt to delegitimize, impeach, censor, sue and remove the democratically elected 45th President of the United States – is a tale that winds through nearly every facet of the color revolution playbook. There is no purer embodiment of Revolver's thesis that the very same regime change professionals who run Color Revolutions on behalf of the US Government in order to undermine or overthrow alleged "authoritarian" governments overseas, are running the very same playbook to overturn Trump's 2016 victory and to pre-empt a repeat in 2020. To put it simply, what you see is not just the same Color Revolution playbook run against Trump, but the same people using it against Trump who have employed it in a professional capacity against targets overseas—same people same playbook.

In Norm Eisen's case, the "same people same playbook" refrain takes an arrestingly literal turn when one realizes that Norm Eisen wrote a classic Color Revolution regime change manual, and conveniently titled it "The Playbook."

Read full article here...

Additional source:

<https://en.mercopress.com/2016/11/17/soros-believed-to-be-behind-counter-revolutions-where-the-other-party-wins-elections>