

Europe Rising Against Pandemic Scam

This is a compilation of three videos from London and Berlin recorded on August 29, 2020. Massive and enthusiastic crowds assemble to show their disgust with and defiance of the pandemic scam. Out of tens of thousands, you will see only one person with a mask. David Icke and Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. deliver rousing speeches to the wild cheers from what appears to be the beginning of a global groundswell of resistance against insanity and corruption in high places. Those who think they are alone in their suspicions of hidden agendas behind the pandemic theater will be encouraged by these scenes. – Source: Red Pill University
