

Fox News Host Cuts Off Guest When He Links BLM Antifa Violence to George Soros

Newt Gingrich, the former Speaker of the House, was shut down by Harris Faulkner, a Fox News host, and Marie Harf, a former Obama administration State Department staffer and CIA analyst, when he blamed liberal progressive prosecuting attorneys, who have been funded by billionaire George Soros, for the violence and $2-billion in property damage caused by rioters. Most damage from riots is not covered by insurance. Gingrich said that Joe Biden and Kamala Harris have praised “progressive” district attorneys who are anti-police, pro-criminal, and the major cause of the violence we are seeing because the prosecutors release criminals back onto the streets. Ms. Faulkner then told Gingrich that she wasn’t sure Soros should be brought into the conversation, and Harf agreed. [Soros funding is perhaps the most important single cause of the growing street terrorism in America and in other countries as well. The fact that this is taboo for public discussion at the supposedly conservative Fox News and even the White House, is powerful evidence of controlled opposition.] -GEG

-GEG

FOX News host Harris Faulkner asked Newt Gingrich not to discuss conspiracy theories about international financier George Soros and his role in funding left-wing political groups, leaving the former House Speaker confused on Wednesday afternoon.

"The number one problem in almost all the cities is George Soros-elected, left-wing, antipolice pro-criminal district attorneys," Gingrich began.

Fox host Harris Faulkner interrupted: "I'm not sure we need to bring George Soros into this."

"He paid for it," Gingrich replied. "I mean, why can't we discuss that fact that millions of dollars."

"No he didn't," stated former Obama administration State Department staffer Marie Harf. "George Soros doesn't need to be a part of this conversation."

"Okay... So, it's verboten?" Gingrich asked.

Read full article here...

Watch full video for context here: