

Green Sabbath: Sunday Lockdowns for 'Gaia' and Jubilee for the Earth

Christian Westbrook, the Ice Age Farmer, revealed that climate alarmists—from the Pope to Rabbis to Greta Thunberg—are calling for a “Green Sabbath,” forcing people to stay at home, with all shops closed, in deference to Gaia on Sunday. He says that people are now used to hyper surveillance and enforced lockdowns, setting the stage for worship of the creation (nature), instead of the Creator, on a day chosen by the Catholic church.

Boris Johnson has committed to ‘protecting’ 30% of the land in the UK due to the loss of ‘biodiversity.’ Climate lobbyists blame food production, animal grazing and agriculture, as the reasons for their claim that wildlife is declining. Al Gore announced a climate tracing program that combines AI and satellites to monitor emissions. The Pope has urged people to reconsider energy usage, consumption, transportation and diet. Teenage climate alarmist Greta Thunberg also wants a day or rest because the Earth is ‘overharvested.’

“Agenda 2030 and spiritual battles are playing out before our eyes – will you be corralled along, or stand up as a free human and refuse to worship their Earth Day Jubilee?”

Christian Westbrook is a featured speaker for Mr. Griffin’s Red Pill Expo at Jekyll Island, Georgia on October 10 and 11.
