

Orange County, California: Thriving Restaurant Never Shut Down and Rejects Masks!

Tony Roman says there is a criminal action against his restaurant, and he responded by directly challenging Governor Gavin Newsom to officially file charges so that he may present his case in front of a jury of his peers. The eatery remains open and serves a bustling crowd.