

Quantas Airlines and Korea Air Recommend Covid-19 Vaccine 'Passport' for International Flights

written by GEG | November 26, 2020

Airlines are likely to require passengers to be vaccinated, because governments are poised require vaccines as a condition for lifting quarantines for new arrivals. "Common Pass," is an app endorsed by the World Economic Forum to evaluate the Covid-19 test results of passengers and determine whether they should travel.