

Ron Paul Says Chaos is the Goal of Marxists – Everywhere There is Chaos, Biden Benefits

written by GEG | November 6, 2020

Ron Paul and Daniel McAdams discuss the many dubious vote counts, especially in battleground states including Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Michigan, Nevada, North Carolina and Pennsylvania, that point to election fraud. McAdams reveals that Hillary Clinton's former lawyer, Marc Elias, who hired Fusion GPS that produced the phony Russian dossier against Trump, has been suing states to get election rules changed via the mass legalization of ballot harvesting, mail-in voting, and extended deadlines across the US. The introduction and legalization of "ballot harvesting," where operatives can collect and submit boxes of ballots without proof of identity, has greatly distorted the vote tally. Hundreds of thousands of votes suddenly have been "discovered." The media, by censoring conservatives, was complicit in shifting the vote. Social media also severely censored conservatives. Polls predicted a massive a 'blue wave' that failed to happen, making it appear that polls are used as propaganda to favor Democrats.

Trump got 26% of the vote from non-white people, despite the incessant accusations against him by the media that he is a racist. Ron Paul spoke out against the lack of morality in our country that has led to mass corruption, and against groups receiving political favors.

The Transition Integrity Project, a gang of never-Trumpers, war-gamed how to make Trump leave office in the event of a close race, and the scenarios are eerily similar to what is now taking place.

Ron Paul and Daniel McAdams gave specific examples of incidents that are signs of election fraud as every state that registered a delay, every state that stopped counting, has registered more votes for Biden. In Georgia, Barack Obama's former speech writer urged Democrats to go door-to-door to fix their ballots on November 4th, the day after the election! A Pennsylvania judge ruled that all candidates and accredited observers be permitted to watch the vote count after they were blocked from watching absentee ballot counts, but they are still being blocked. Trump had a strong lead in Philadelphia, but days before the election Josh Shapiro, the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, predicted that “if all the votes are added up in PA, Trump is going to lose.” Two boxes containing 23,722 ballots were found and all of them were votes for Biden, which seems to be a statistical impossibility.

In Detroit, poll workers barred observers and even covered the windows while counting mail-in ballots. Over 500 mail-in ballots for Trump were found dumped at Marysville precinct in Michigan. In Arizona, in some areas, voters were given Sharpie permanent felt pens to mark their ballots, but the ink bled through to the next page, causing the ballots to be invalidated. North Carolina simply stopped counting votes as Trump took the lead, and says it will finish counting November 12.

From Breitbart:

Marc Elias, the Democratic lawyer behind many of the voting changes causing havoc in the 2020 presidential election, is also responsible for hiring Fusion GPS to compile the “Russia dossier” to dig up dirt on Donald Trump in the 2016 race.

Elias works for the Perkins Coie law firm in Washington, DC, and once represented Hillary Clinton’s presidential campaign. In 2017, the Washington Post identified Elias and Perkins Coie as having hired the Fusion GPS opposition research firm on behalf of the Clinton campaign and the Democratic National Committee (DNC).

Fusion GPS, in turn, hired former British spy Christopher Steele, who fabricated sensational claims that helped lead to the FBI surveillance of the Trump campaign, and sustained claims of “Russia collusion” that haunted the Trump administration but were later discredited. Critics claimed that Clinton and the DNC never properly reported the payments to Fusion GPS in federal campaign filings.

As Breitbart News has reported throughout the 2020 election, Elias often led Democrats in suing election authorities in battleground states to change their voting rules to expand vote-by-mail, extend deadlines, or relax rules to prevent fraud.

In April 2020, Breitbart News reported that Elias had demanded vote-by-mail across the nation, and less restrictive rules, in an article in The Atlantic – a publication known for its editorial hostility to Trump. Hillary Clinton tweeted her agreement
