

Seattle: Man Shot Dead Near Biden Victory Celebration at Former CHAZ Location

written by GEG | November 9, 2020

Seattle: A 31-year old man was shot dead at around 1:00 AM Sunday morning, near a 'victory' celebration for Joe Biden. The shooting took place at the southern end of what used to be the Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone (CHAZ), an anarchist insurrectionist movement which occupied much of the Capitol Hill neighborhood of Seattle for over three weeks during the summer. A handgun was found near the location of the shooting and turned in to police, but no suspect has been identified in the murder at this time.

A man was shot at the intersection of 10th Avenue and East Pike Street in Seattle early Sunday morning near a victory celebration for President-Elect Joe Biden, according to the Capitol Hill Seattle Blog.

"Shortly after 1:00 AM, Seattle Police responded to reports of a shooting at that location. Upon arrival, officers located the male victim and began life-saving measures until the Seattle Fire Department took over primary care," according to the Seattle Police Department.

"The victim was transported to Harborview Medical Center but later succumbed to his injuries," police further stated.

The shooting took place at the southern end of what used to be the Capitol Hill Autonomous Zone (CHAZ), an anarchist insurrectionist movement which occupied much of the Capitol Hill neighbourhood of Seattle for over three weeks during the summer.

Following the media's proclamation of Joe Biden as the President-Elect of the United States, the former area of CHAZ erupted in celebration. It is unclear if the shooting is connected to the festivities.

Read full article here...