

United Nations' Financial Leaders Want to Create a Social-Credit Score Based on a Person's Internet History

written by GEG | March 17, 2021

The IMF's priorities are "climate change" and the UN's Sustainable Development Goals for radical green policies. The Network of Central Banks is bringing global finance in line with the green agenda by controlling the policies of banks and insurers. Vaccine acceptance will be another factor that determines social score.

Senator Caught on Hot Mic Admitting Democrats Will Ram Through Trillions in New Spending Without GOP Support

written by GEG | March 17, 2021

Democrat Senator Ben Cardin said Democrats will “most likely have to use reconciliation” on an infrastructure package. Reconciliation is a process that requires only a simple majority vote, instead of a 60% majority, so Democrats can pass bills that would ordinarily be blocked by Republicans.
