No Guns Seized from Capitol Demonstrators and No Shots Fired – Except by a Security Guard – So Why Is It Called an Armed Insurrection?

written by GEG | March 5, 2021

Jill Sanborn, chief of FBI counterterrorism, admitted that no firearms were confiscated during the so-called Capitol “insurrection” and the only shot fired was from a Capitol police officer who killed unarmed protester Ashli Babbitt with a bullet to the neck. Journalist Glenn Greenwald says that liberals insist that the protest at the Capitol was an armed insurrection to elevate fear and make people think that they are fighting domestic terrorists. Leftists want new laws that will give the FBI, CIA and NSA immense powers against American citizens. People in fear will accept tyrannical policies.
