

DOJ Says No Charges For Capitol Police Officer Filmed Executing Unarmed Air Force Vet Ashli Babbitt

written by GEG | April 16, 2021

The Department of Justice is prosecuting hundreds of Trump supporters for as little as walking through the Capitol building, but refuses to press charges against, or even identify, the Capitol police officer who shot and killed unarmed 14-year Air Force veteran Ashli Babbitt in the Capitol building on Jan 6.

The Department of Justice is vindictively prosecuting hundreds of Trump supporters for as little as walking through the Capitol building but will not press charges against the still-unnamed Capitol police officer who shot and killed unarmed 14-year Air Force veteran Ashli Babbitt in the Capitol building on Jan 6.

Some lives matter more than others. DOJ closes investigation into killing of Ashli Babbitt.
<https://t.co/vx64MpFfYX>

– Julie Kelly ☐☐ (@julie_kelly2) April 14, 2021